July 7, 2020

Dear Friends of the Cape Coral Library,

Although the library is open (at 50% capacity), meeting rooms are not available and donations are not being accepted, so most FOCCL activities continue to be on hold. To address business issues the Board has been communicating via email in place of scheduled Board meetings. The following are our updates:

CANCELED

- July/August Accents newsletter
- July 18 General Meeting

The July General Meeting program in the past has been a roundtable presentation by members on books or authors they have read recently and recommend to others. Let's keep the tradition alive in 2020! We will publish the list of titles and authors in our next Accents newsletter. Submit one or two of your favorite reads of 2020 via email to president@capefriends.org.

PAUSED

- Hotline calls are being answered but we are unable to pick-up donations at this time.
- Art Gallery installations
- First Dibs everyday book sales

OPEN BOARD POSITION

We announced previously that Linda Shorey, Treasurer, planned to move out of state by mid-year. She resigned May 8 and Dawn LaVacque, President, presented her with a Certificate of Appreciation and two gifts. Until a Nominating Committee is formed and an Interim Treasurer is appointed, Treasury matters will be handled by Dawn and Rose Browning, Assistant Treasurer.

BOOK PAGE MAGAZINE

(Paid for by Friends of the Cape Coral Library.)

Current issue now available in the library New Release area, past issues are in the vestibule.

Information about library operations is on our website and on www.leelibrary.net. Until we meet again – STAY SAFE and STAY HEALTHY.

Best Regards,

Board of Directors
