Friends of the Cape Coral Library
Feature Three Popular Artists in April Gallery

Cape Coral FL, March 25, 2008 –The Friends of the Cape Coral Library announce a new exhibit which runs throughout April. The Gallery, located at the Cape Coral Library, 921 SW 39th Terrace, off Mohawk Boulevard, is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Claire Candelori's work can be found in private collections both nationally and internationally, and has been juried into numerous fine art competitions and exhibitions throughout the country. She was recognized as one of the top five new artists in the country by Artist's Magazine in the Animal/Wildlife category and was featured in the Jan/Feb 2007 edition.

William Morrow has been painting watercolors since 1982 as a result of a series of dream analyses with a Jungian therapist. He has been a psychotherapist and hypnotherapist in private practice for thirty-three years. He likes to paint subjects that evoke strong feelings, including images of nature and of a forgotten past. With the help of a computer he has ventured into more abstract use of the transparent medium.

In addition, the Southwest Florida Gem, Mineral and Fossil Club will feature a display of a variety of lapidary and gem sculptures.
