Friends of the Cape Coral Library
Host Four Accomplished Artists in June–July Gallery

Cape Coral FL, June 11, 2009 – The Friends of the Cape Coral Library announce a new exhibit which runs between June 15 and July 31. The Gallery, located at the Cape Coral Library, 921 SW 39th Terrace, off Mohawk Boulevard, is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The new exhibit will feature four accomplished artists.

David Acevedo has established himself as a solid artist and a fighter, winning Visual Artist of the Year at the Lee County’s Angel of the Arts Awards in 2009. He is focused in the promising future of Cape Coral and works with different projects and proposals to help the local art scene grow to its maximum potential.

Beverly Taht has been developing her talent at jewelry creation and finds this medium endlessly creative, given the millions of beading materials with which to work. Each piece is unique and a challenge. She will be displaying some of her most recent creations.

Beth Ivans has extended her creative touch beyond painting into wire wrapping and will display both media in the gallery.

Ralph Del Coro will display a variety of egg art, a unique style that is colorful, engaging and wistful.
