Friends of the Cape Coral Library
Feature Four Accomplished Artists in July–August Gallery

Cape Coral FL, July 27, 2009 – The Friends of the Cape Coral Library announce a new exhibit which runs between August 1 and September 15. The Gallery, located at the Cape Coral Library, 921 SW 39th Terrace, off Mohawk Boulevard, is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The new exhibit will feature four accomplished artists.

Mary Widmer's work started as an adventure and has evolved into storytelling through pictures. She projects the heart of her subject - whether it is be a flower, an animal, a person or even a landscape.

Ann Harrison May was born with no arms, and has learned to use her feet for everything. She was instrumental in the establishment of the “Art by the disABLED” studio and galleries at local hospitals. She is the art instructor at “The Visually Impaired Persons Center of Southwest Florida” located in North Fort Myers.

Cynthia McIntyre has worked glass by fusing and flame working in whimsical, bold, and freeform ways. Her inspiration is derived from her love of the coast, contemporary art and even magazine ads.

Rhonda Reagan gets inspiration from Florida nature and wildlife. The sunsets, ocean, sand and animals provide her with an abundance of color combinations to display.
